Metricon have a proud history of building quality homes for Australians since 1976. Their commitment to excellence continues to this very day and that is why more Australians choose to build with Metricon than any other builder. Metricon offer innovative yet practical home designs that are designed to grow with your family's needs well into the future. Their rigorous quality assurance process guarantees that each of their finished homes are completed to the highest building standard and they back this up with a 25 year structural guarantee. It's Metricon's innovation, superior build quality, dedication to customer service and professional business practices that have seen them win the HIA SA Professional Major Builder of the year award for the past four years.
