

Weekend Day Trip: Food & Wine

Adelaide Uraidla Summertown Lenswood Woodside Mount Barker Adelaide

Driving out of Adelaide via Greenhill Road for a hearty breakfast – a full stomach is essential for adventurers and responsible wine tasters. www.uraidlahotel.com.au

Start your Adelaide Hills wine journey with a 5 min drive to Ashton Hills Vineyard for a glass of sparkling Pinot Noir. www.ashtonhills.com.au/about/

Double back through Uraidla and meander on through the scenic roadways towards Lenswood, turn left onto Harris Road to discover 3 world class cellar door restaurants – Mt Lofty Ranges, Pike & Joyce and Anderson Hill.

Arrive at Melba's Chocolate Factory in Woodside, the ultimate nostalgic indulgence for every sweet tooth. www.melbaschocolates.com.au

Right next door, visit Woodside Cheese Wrights for a taste of their unmissable artisanal cheeses, made from local and sustainable produce. www.woodsidecheese.com.au

Next stop, ArtWine. The name says it all; an art gallery and architecturally designed cellar door that will impress you with work by local artists and modern Mediterranean wine varieties. www.artwine.com.au

On your way home, head to Newenham via Mount Barker and pop into our Sales and Information Centre, to chat about making everyday a food and wine day trip. www.newenham.com.au

Indulge in an overnight stay – as the Hills are under 30 minutes to the CBD, we suggest you pack an overnight bag, make the most of the gorgeous local accommodation.

TIP: Charge your phone. The views at both Anderson Hill and Pike & Joyce are stunning!
