

Weekend Day Trip: Motors and Mates

Adelaide  Birdwood  Lobethal  St Ives  Mount Barker  Stirling  Adelaide

From Adelaide, follow the trickle of the Torrens along Lower North East Road, beginning your day at the largest vintage motoring collection in Australia, in Birdwood. www.motor.history.sa.gov.au

Head South on Angus Creek Road and swap morning tea for a locally crafted frothy and some finger-licking starters at Lobethal Bierhaus. www.bierhaus.com.au

With a full belly, head to JAKEM Farm for some off-road adrenaline on 4WDDriving tracks surrounded by rolling hills and tranquil creeks. www.jakemfarm.com.au

Continue South on Onkaparinga Valley Road towards Newenham, where you can discover the chance to call the Hills home. www.newenham.com.au

Another 15-minutes on the road will have you at award winning craft brewery, Prancing Pony for a guided tasting to quench your thirst. www.prancingponybrewery.com.au

Just down the road, discover a historic Hahndorf icon where you can indulge in some authentic German meats and treats... and more beer. www.germanarmshotel.com.au

On your way home, stop off at Adelaide's best kept golfing secret, Stirling Golf Club, for a few rounds surrounded by lush natural beauty. www.thestirlinggolfclub.com

Head back to Adelaide, 20-minutes via the South Eastern Freeway, exhilarated and full-bellied, as you start to plan next weekend's drive.

TIP: Book ahead for JAKEM farm and The Stirling Golf Course, to ensure your spot.
